

Checking Credibility

Chose which source would be most credible (believable and trustworthy) in answering the question provided. Make sure you include specific evidence to support your choice in your answer. Your evidence and explanation is more important than the actual choice you make.

1. Question: Which video game should I buy?

Source 1: An article written about the best games of 2016 by a professional gamer for a tech magazine.

Source 2: An internet article reviewing video game effects on the social development of teenagers.

Which source do you trust more? WHY do you trust it more?

2. Question: Who was there when the Declaration of Independence was signed?

Source 1: A Hollywood movie about the American Revolution made in 2015.

Source 2: A book written by a famous historian who is an expert on the American Revolution, published in 2007.

Which source do you trust more? WHY do you trust it more?

3. Question: Why is there so much fighting in the Middle East?

Source 1: A Facebook article written by a 25-year-old aspiring journalist.

Source 2: A video news report from a conservative political T.V. station.

Which source do you trust more? WHY do you trust it more?