

Child Labor

Directions: List 3 things you notice about each picture you see in one column and then list one emotion it makes you feel in the other column. After you are done looking at the pictures, answer the following questions below the chart.

Observations	Emotion

How do these pictures relate to events similar in the world today?

How do these pictures relate to events different from the world today?